

In the name of God

" The Quality policy of Pars Hassas Company "

Pars Hassas Company , a provider of Total Electrical and Instrument Services by trusting in Almighty God and commitment to having qualified personnel , announces its Quality Policy System towards performing a firm and sustained development by provision of various services to customers , increasing the efficiency , promoting the profitability , enhancing the technical - engineering capability , answering to the needs of customers in line with Quality Policy System of ISO 9000 : 2000 as follows :

- 1 – Achievement of the customers' satisfaction
- 2 – Control of Projects by considering the planned resources , objectives and approved time scheduling .
- 3 – Attempt in utilizing the latest technology know-how , appropriate equipment and standards .
- 4 – Developing human resources through employing the qualified personnel and objective-oriented training .
- 5 – Promoting the use and application of information and communication technology .
- 6 – Commitment to the Health , Safety and Environmental regulations .

Pars Hassas Company is responsible for all its commitments and will provide the different products and services with a quality which is expected by customers at the right time , as well as after sales supporting services .

The Manager of Quality Assurance system, as the representative of management is responsible for coordination , following up and overall implementation of Quality system in Pars Hassas company .

Managing Director
Ali Reza Rastegari